

B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation Commission commends Netanyahu speech to U.S. Congress on Iran Nuclear Deal

March 3, 2015

The B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation Commission (ADC) today welcomed and applauded Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's eloquent speech to a joint session of the U.S. Congress, stating that the Prime Minister presented a compelling and passionate case about the dangers of a nuclear Iran.

Dr Dvir Abramovich, Chairman of the B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation Commission, issued the following statement:

"We welcome and commend Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's stirring speech to a joint session of the U.S. Congress, and more broadly to the international community, in which he passionately and determinedly spoke about the need to ensure that Iran is not permitted to develop nuclear weapons. We agree with the Prime Minister's grave concerns about the current P5+1 negotiations and his statements that "Iran's regime is as radical as ever", that "the greatest dangers facing our world is the marriage of militant Islam with nuclear weapons" and that "We can't let that happen". As we have stated previously, it is our hope that the P5+1 talks lead to a future settlement that imposes restrictions on Iran's capacity to produce nuclear weapons, and removes the existential threat posed by Iran to Israel, the Middle-East and to global security. We urge the Australian government and the international community to heed Prime Minister Netanyahu's warnings and to work together to effect a deal that prevents Iran from building a nuclear bomb".
